

Congratulations!

Soon you will begin your university studies in the U.S.!

The US Education Adviser is pleased to invite all students with admission to US universities and will be traveling this academic year. The orientation is designed specifically to prepare you for entry into the U.S. and the U.S educational system.

Getting Ready to Go: What You Need to Know

Thursday, June 12
9 am – 3 pm
U.S. Embassy Yaoundé

Cameroonians who have studied in the U.S. and American students will share their experiences. Take advantage of this opportunity to learn about a variety of academic, social, and cultural topics and to meet other Cameroonians who will be studying in the U.S.

This workshop is free. Registration is required. Please sign up on the US Embassy Cameroon website under Education Advising – Getting Ready to Go. Please do so by Tuesday June 10, 2014.
